
Ferrington Farmers' Market Vendor Application

The Ferrington Farmers' Market is an association of growers selling local products (such as vegetables, meats, baked goods, and cheeses) grown or made by the members. Membership is limited to farms and businesses located within a 50-mile radius of Ferrington Village (or in any county adjacent to Chatham). Vendors may only sell their own produce or products; resellers are not allowed. Please read the complete market rules, available on our website, before submitting this application.

Products to Be Sold

Please check the box next to each category of products you intend to sell, and give a few examples of specific products (you don't have to list everything). You may add products within a category after you are accepted as a vendor, but you may not add a new category without notifying us. For example, a vendor who currently sells only vegetables but wants to start selling ground beef would need to submit an updated application.
